

Tom Daly & Roger Dakin

MK Sporting Lunch Club

Roger Dakin

Roger played hockey for England in the 1970s and coached the team just before they became successful. Cricket is still on the active agenda, as is golf.

Tom Daley

is an English diver who specialises in the 10 metre platform event and was the 2009 FINA World Champion in the individual event at the age of 15. He started diving at the age of seven and is a member of Plymouth Diving Club. He has made an impact in national and international competitions from age 9. He represented Great Britain at the 2008 Summer Olympics where he was Britain's youngest competitor, the youngest competitor of any nationality outside the sport of swimming, and the youngest to participate in a final. In the first post-Rome 2009 World Championships edition of the FINA World

Diving Rankings for the ten-metre platform, Daley reached a new career best ranking of number one.

He won two gold medals for England at the 2010 Commonwealth Games, in the 10 metre synchro diving (with Max Brick) and the 10 m Individual Platform competition.